THE CALCUTTA ECSTASY.

by

Chef Shaun Kenworthy

After almost twenty-five years living, cooking and immersing himself in the heart of India's extraordinary culinary traditions, British chef Shaun Kenworthy returns home to London, bringing with him a unique, personal story of flavour, nostalgia, and imagination.

Drawing inspiration from the historic Anglo-Indian tables of old Calcutta (now Kolkata), bustling Bengali kitchens and the spice-scented markets of the East. This is a heartfelt reimagining. A homecoming of sorts, not just to Britain but to a Britain that today craves adventure, discovery and a touch of the unexpected on every plate.

Not a cliché of "curry house" culture. This is a vibrant, progressive menu of small plates that celebrates Bengal's layered culinary legacy with British produce, London's energy and Shaun's own restless creativity at its core.
